

RADIANT ENGLISH ACADEMY

SUBJECT ENGLISH

Worksheet No-1

Topic- Types of Sentences

1- A sentence that makes a statement is called a declarative sentence. It ends with full stop.

It was a warm sunny day.

2- A sentence that ask a question is called an interrogative sentence. It ends with a question mark.

Will you come along with me?

3- A sentence that expresses a command, a request or some advice is called an imperative sentence. It ends with a full stop.

Go with him now.

4- A sentence that expresses excitement or other strong feelings is called an exclamatory sentence. It ends with an exclamatory mark.

That was a narrow escape!

A) Read the sentences given below and write what type of sentences they are.

1- Please allow me to participate in the function.

_____

2- You should not talk to strangers.

_____

3- She has won the spelling quiz.

_____

4- How are you?

_____

5- How big the house is!

_____

6- I will not come to school tomorrow.

_____

7- Have you applied for the talent test.

_____

8- Go and fetch my bat.

_____

Topic- parts of Sentences

A sentence has two parts.

1. The subject is the person(s) or the thing (s) we are talking about. It may consist of one word or many words.
2. The predicate tells us something about the subject. It may also consist of one word or many words.

The little girl has many toys

Subject

predicate

In some imperative sentences, the subject may not be stated. It is understood.

Complete your homework. (you is the hidden subject.)

Please open the door. (you is the hidden subject.)

B) circle the subject and underline the predicate in the following sentences.

1- Delhi is hot in the month of june.

2- Lilies are beautiful flowers.

3- Akhil and Rohit study in the same school.

4- Tarun is thin and tall. He looks handsome.

5- Charles Dickens is a great writer.

6- They are going to Goa by road.

7- The cat split all the milk on the floor.

C) Fill in the blanks by adding missing subject or predicate.

1- My pet cat _____.

2- The famous singer _____.

3- _____ was driving too rashly.

4- _____ were put behind bars.

5- Shakespeare _____.

6- The Sun _____.

7- A little black kitten _____.